The Lightbearers Discipleship Program (LDP) is an intensive discipleship experience designed to give university students and young adults an opportunity to deepen their relationship with God as part of an intentional community of committed believers. Our houses provide a tangible environment for synergistic growth and guided personal devotion while funding and participating in mission work around the world.

The Lightbearers Discipleship Program is a time commitment as well as a commitment financially, spiritually and relationally. To that end, please check the following boxes, indicating that you understand and agree to the discipleship program commitments. Any alternative arrangements must be agreed to by Lightbearers campus staff. Please let us know if you have any questions or concerns.

As a participant in the Lightbearers Discipleship Program, I commit to the following:

- Taking part in weekly house gatherings
- Participating in the Lightbearers Institute
- Meeting regularly (2-4 times/month) with a Lightbearers mentor
- Traveling on a Lightbearers overseas trip
- Attending the pre-fall student retreat
